

Coach Caleb Bolton

Coach Caleb Bolton returns for his 3rd year as varsity assistant coach. Caleb works primarily with infielders and outfielders defensively, and calls the defensive alignments during games. Caleb is a 2011 graduate of Bishop Fenwick High School, where he earned 2 varsity letters in baseball and all league honors as a third baseman and outfielder. He went on to play baseball at Miami University Hamilton Campus in 2011-12.

Caleb's coaching experience includes 2 years as a volunteer varsity assistant with St. Xavier High School during the 2013-2014 seasons. He took a brief hiatus from coaching in 2015-16 and returned to the dugout in the 2017 season as varsity assistant. Caleb has helped multiple players in his short coaching career go on to play baseball at the next level including division I-III colleges.

Caleb is married to Erin (Short) Bolton. He is currently employed as an operations assistant store manager with the Kroger Co. He has served the Kroger Co. for 10+ years and been in his current role for over 3 years.
