

Ralph Steinmetz

Head Freshman Coach

The 2019 season will be Ralph Steinmetz's 5th year as head freshmen baseball coach at Bishop Fenwick High School. Coach Steinmetz played high school baseball for East Central High School in Indiana from 1975 to 1979 playing pitcher, outfield and 1st base. Steinmetz's coaching experience started 25 years ago with T-ball and progressing to select league teams all the way through age 18U over the years until moving to the high school level 5 years ago. Coach Steinmetz is also an umpire during the summer to stay in close contact with players of all ages and current with the baseball rules.

Steinmetz earned a bachelor's degree in Chemistry from Purdue university in 1983 and has worked at the Sun Chemical Corporation in Cincinnati for 34 years. His wife, Teresa, works as a virtual office manager for the Edoc company from our house in Lebanon, Ohio. The Steinmetz's have 4 sons, two (David & Anthony a 2010 Fenwick grad) live in Los Angeles, Ca. working for Fidelity investments, William (2014 Fenwick grad) applying for medical school to become sports doctor and Joshua, a current senior at Fenwick.