

Joe Wagner
Assistant JV Coach

Coach Joe Wagner is a Social Studies Teacher and Department Head at Bishop Fenwick High School. Joe began his professional coaching career at Kings High School with the freshman team in the Spring of 2000. He has volunteered for many seasons with various teams, including 8th grade baseball at St. Bartholomew in Springfield Township, 8 and under at Saylor Park Knothole, and Finneytown Summer baseball team. After entering Bishop Fenwick High School in the Fall of 2000, he was hired to coach the Junior Varsity Baseball team under Coach Bob McCormick. Coach Wagner has fulfilled different roles with Fenwick baseball, including assistant varsity and head freshman coach. He also has experience coaching Wrestling for 2 years, and Boys Tennis for 7 years. He has been the Head boys varsity golf coach for the past 13 years, after serving as the junior varsity coach for 4 years. Coach Wagner has made 7 trips to the state tournament with teams and individuals and he has won three league titles in the GCL and MML.

Coach Wagner is married to his wife Rachel of 16 plus years. They have five children and reside in West Chester, Ohio. Their oldest daughter is a freshman at Fenwick and is on the Dance Team, and dances at SDA in Liberty Township. Henrietta is currently a 7th grader at Hopewell Junior School and participates on the Cross Country and Track teams. Anthony is a fourth grader at Union Elementary school where he is active at recess and plays basketball and volleyball after school. Jack is in 2nd grade at Hopewell Elementary along with his sister, Josie who is a Kindergartner and also dances at SDA.