

Robert Hanes

Volunteer Assistant Coach

The 2019 season will be Robert Hanes' second year as a coach at Bishop Fenwick High School. Robert joined the staff in 2018 as the pitching coach at both the junior varsity and freshman level. He graduated from Cincinnati Hills Christian Academy in 2011 where he was a pitcher and played third and first base. While not playing baseball in college Robert is a student of the game. He has committed much of his life to creating his own sports and esports media company where he studies both areas.

Robert originally came to Bishop Fenwick as a student teacher from Miami University. He worked with Matt Mulligan, teaching United States History to students at the junior grade level. Also during his time at Bishop Fenwick he has continued to substitute teach and help advise for the new esports club.

Robert has two degrees from Miami University. A Bachelor's degree in History in 2015 and a Masters in Teaching of Integrated Social Studies Education in 2017.
