

Head Varsity Coach Chris Stratton

The 2019 season will be Chris Stratton's third year as head varsity baseball coach at Bishop Fenwick High School. Coach Stratton joined the Falcon coaching staff in the 2013 season as the head junior varsity coach. Stratton is a 1989 graduate of Middletown High School where he played first base and outfield for the Middies from 1986 – 1989. He continued his playing career at Miami University of Middletown where he played first base for the Thunderhawks during the 1991 and 1992 seasons. His excellence in both the classroom and on the field was recognized through his selection as the recipient of the Warrior Award at the conclusion of the 1992 season.

Stratton's coaching experience includes stints on both the collegiate and high school level. He served as an assistant coach at Miami University Middletown from 1992 – 1993 and spent six years at Edgewood High School from 2000 – 2006. He was the head junior varsity coach from 2000 – 2004 and the varsity assistant coach from 2005-2006, where he helped lead the Cougars to two consecutive Mid-Miami League championships, including a sectional championship in 2005.

Stratton earned his bachelor's degree in Education from Miami University in 1993 and his master's degree in School Counseling from the University of Dayton in 1999. He is currently employed as a guidance counselor at Edgewood Middle School. His wife, Nancy, is the principal at Monroe Elementary School in Monroe. The Strattons, residents of Monroe, have two children – Madeline (21) who is currently a junior at Hanover College and Nicholas (17) who is in his senior year at Bishop Fenwick.
