

Chris Earls

Chris Earls joined the Falcon coaching Staff for the 2014 season as the assistant junior varsity coach. Earls is a 1989 graduate of Middletown High School, where he lettered in football and baseball three years. He was captain of the football team, Coaches Award recipient, All-GMC for Academics and received the Joe Nuxhall Scholarship in its inaugural year.

Earls earned his bachelor's degree from The Ohio State University. Despite his superior athleticism, he was cut from the baseball team. He is currently employed as the Safety Manager for Valicor Environmental Services. His wife of 20 years, Amie, is an adjunct professor at Miami University. The Earls, residents of Middletown, have three children – Ellie (18) who is a Senior at Bishop Fenwick, Carter (15) sophomore at Bishop Fenwick, and Evie (12) 6th grade at John XXIII.
