PRESS RELEASE

2nd Annual Girl's High School All-American Game Coming to Raleigh, NC.

42 of Nations Elite players and 8 of Nations top coaches to participate in the event

Quincy, IL. October 24, 2014: Forty-two of the nation's elite girl's high school soccer players from fall playing states will take part in the Second Annual High School All-American Game on December 13, 2014 in Raleigh, NC. The players selected are seniors who have finished their high school careers and represent their high school teams during the fall season. These players have achieved many regional and national awards and will attend some of the top universities across the country.

The game is being held the same weekend and in the same proximity as the men's NCAA Division I College Cup. The participants arrive on Thursday, December 11th and will attend the semi-final games of the College Cup on December 12th and will also have the opportunity to attend the national championship on December, 14th.

The players are chosen based on their career high school achievements only and must have played their senior season in High School. A list of participants is below and can also be found on the website under the 2014 girl's rosters tab.

The event is being sponsored in part by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America, Adidas, Noxin Trucking, and Soccer.com. If you would like to inquire about being a sponsor or to advertise in the program, you can contact Eric Stratman at 217-257-1103.

Eight of the nation's elite coaches will also take part in the game. The list of coaches is below. The website is <http://www.highschoolsoccerallamerican.com>.
