Scott Brown and the OHHS Staff are entering their 3rd season with the Highlanders. Last year, the squad finished 9-6-1, their first back-to-back successful seasons in over 10 years. Scott Brown has been coaching soccer since 1993. He has been fortunate enough to have worked with athletes at many different levels ranging from U-5-U19. His past teams have captured numerous league and tournament championships. Many of his former players have been recognized with All-League, Regional, and National honors. 37 of his former players have moved on to play at the collegiate or professional level.

“Our hope is to create an environment that is conducive to the development of the player, while also creating enthusiasm for the game.”
– Scott Brown

OAK HILLS HIGHLANDERS VS EDGEWOOD COUGARS

This season we have added something new to the Oak Hills Soccer Youth Camp. On Thursday, July 23rd, The High School team will host a match against Edgewood at 7:00pm. The Cougars are a division 1 school from the Southwest Ohio Conference. They won the SWOC Championship in 2014. We feel that this will give the campers an opportunity to see the game at a higher level. All campers, their families, and everyone else will be able to attend for free.
