

Alli has been the Athletic Trainer for Wyoming High School since 2016. She has been an employee of Beacon Orthopaedics and Sports Medicine since 2014, where she started as the Athletic Trainer for Princeton High School.

A native to West Chester, Ohio, Alli earned her Bachelor's Degree in Athletic Training in 2011 from the University of Cincinnati. Thereafter, completing a graduate assistantship at Penn State University earning her Master's Degree of Education focusing in Health Education.

She is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, Ohio Athletic Trainers Association, a Licensed Athletic Trainer (Ohio), and a Certified CPR/ First Aid Instructor.

In addition, Alli serves as an Approved Clinical Instructor for the University of Cincinnati and Mount St Joseph's College in order to provide high school internship opportunities for local college athletic training students.

In her free time, Alli enjoys traveling, being active outdoors, running, spending time with her husband, Zak, and her two dogs.